Detailed Action

The amendment filed on October 13, 2004 has been entered.

Claims Rejection – 35 U.S.C. 103(a)

1. Claims 1 and 4-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cram (U.S. Patent No. 885,444) in view of Bentley (U.S. Patent No. 724,246) for the same reason set forth in the Office action mailed on August 2, 2004. In addition, since the modified hand utensil of Cram shows all the claimed structure, it is held that the modified hand utensil is fully capable of performing the claimed functional limitation. Further, the claimed functional limitation “for peeling and pitting a fruit” adds no structure to and is of no patentable import in the claimed hand utensil.
2. Claims 2, 3 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cram (U.S. Patent No. 885,444) and Bentley (U.S. Patent No. 724,246) as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Kupiszewski (U.S. Patent No. 1,288,617) for the same reason set forth in the Office action mailed on August 2, 2004. In addition, since the modified hand utensil of Cram shows all the claimed structure, it is held that the modified hand utensil is fully capable of performing the claimed functional limitation. Further, the claimed functional limitation “for peeling and pitting a fruit” adds no structure to and is of no patentable import in the claimed hand utensil.

Remarks

Applicant's arguments filed October 13, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues, at page 5 of the amendment, claim 1 as amended makes clear the hand utensil is intended expressly for peeling and pitting fruit while both Cram and Bentley teach the use of blades and slots for mixing. In response to Applicant's argument, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Action Made Final

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
